NOTES FROM THE FONDA COMEDY CO.—Our last CUPPER did not get us the right people, but we will try again. We have had a nice business, although the weather has been very cold. Fonda, Madame Fonda, Billie Farrell, Billie De Mack and Tommy Bates. All are well and happy, and the pale face man gives us a regular visit every Sunday before services in the West. We were obliged to lose a friend, is also regularly on hand.

The King, of the young comedian, and his reception in Sydney and in Melbourne was very enthusiastic. During his coming visit he will make a most prolonged tour, remaining in Australia for three weeks. If no longer, Mr. Mack's present company will be taken over intact on his tour of this country closed in Kansas City, and the company went direct to Australia. The first performance of the new company will be given in Honolulu en route. The next stop will be at Auckland, where he will make a four weeks' tour of New Zealand, after which he will begin a tour of New Guinea, in which Mr. Mack and Wilkinson started three weeks ahead of the company.

SAINT LOUIS, U. S. A.

NOTES FROM H. TALBOT SMITH, business manager for John B. Wills' Musical Comedy Co.—We intend to make a tour of Cuba before we leave, and from all prospects it seems the Spanish theatregoers are going to come en masse to each performance. We will play the Marti Theatre for three weeks, then we go across the city to the Payret Theatre where we will stay indefinitely. So far we have done an excellent business in the South, but as they have no S. R. O. signs down this way, and do not know the meaning of them, it would be foolish to say we use this insignificant thing. There are very few American people on the bill, John C. OUR CHICAGO LETTER.

FROM OUR OWN CORRESPONDENT.

Western Bureau of the New York Clipper.

February 20, Ashland Block, Chicago.

February, the shortest month of the year, will go down in the stage annals of Chicago as one of the most notable of any season, for the business has been phenomenal at all houses, and the record run for this city occurred at the La Salle Theatre, 27, when "The Time, the Place and the Girl" celebrated its 30th performance. Maude Adams, in "Peter Pan," at the Illinois, is the principal attraction, spending one week, succeeding Ellen Terry. The Whitney Opera House (formerly new theatre), will not open 9, as announced, owing to alterations being made twice as deep as it was originally. It is now announced to open 13, March 15, and will be a heavy rain, which proved beneficial to the houses playing a matinee that day, but the outlook is for a very exceptionally open and mild one so far.

ILLINOIS THEATRE (Will J. Davis, manager).—Ellen Terry was greeted by fine houses during her two weeks' stay, in the last of which she presented "Nance Oldfield," and gave the first local performance of "The Good Hope," which proved a very gloomy morsel. Miss Terry's birthday anniversary occurring Feb. 27, the house was closed to capacity, and the well beloved actress was given a hearty reception. The birthday party in "The Good Hope" took on a double significance. "Captain Bransford's Conversion" was given one performance, matinee of March 2. Maude Adams will commence a four weeks' engagement in "Peter Pan."

TOWNS THEATRE (Harry J. Powers, manager).—John Drew is in the last week of his engagement here, in "His House in Order," and has been doing a splendid business. The play has been well received, and the star seems to have made a hit of his career, locally. E. S. Willard, next week, in repertory.

GARRICK THEATRE (Herbert C. Duce, manager).—Blanche Bates, in "The Girl of the Golden West," has made one of the greatest hits in the history of local theatres, with Frank Keenan sharing the success for his superb performance of Jack Rance. This is the fourth and final week, and the house is practically sold out for the entire time. David Warfield will open 11 in "The Music Master," for six weeks, and the advance sale promises to eclipse all records.

COLONIAL THEATRE (George W. Lederer, manager).—Richard Carle, in "The Spring Chickens," seems to be the only thing to draw at this attraction, as the story of the opening week has been repeated in the seven succeeding weeks.

CLYDE THEATRE (George C. Warren, manager).—Orin Johnson has made most favorable impression in the title role of "The Shepherd King," in which he succeeded Wright Lorimer. Feb. 22, the latter going to Lakeland, N. J., for his health, which gave out that week. It is expected that Mr. Lorimer will return in about a week. Joseph F. Hall, manager of the company, was suddenly stricken with pneumonia 23, and sent to the hospital, where he is showing signs of improvement. Bernard A. Reinold is filling Mr. Hall's place during his illness. May Buckley has been most successful in winning the hearts of all Chicago in her charming impersonation of Princess Miriam.

STANDARD THEATRE (E. H. Hermyer, manager).—Bertha Kalich made a most favorable impression in "The Kreutzer Sonata," last week, and will continue to present the play this week. Theodore Roberts is appearing in "The Girl of the Golden West," with dignity to the excellent cast. Business is splendid. Thomas W. Ross, in "The Other Girl," follows.

GRAND OPERA HOUSE (Harry Askin, manager).—Mr. Hopkinson has been a favorite locally, and the house has been filled at every performance, while the antics of Dallas Welford have caused the greatest amount of favorable comment. Mary Manning will follow, 19, in "Glorious Ben." Grand Northern Theatre (Fred E. Eberts, manager).—Cecil Spooner played to capacity business last week, in "The Girl of the Golden West." The Four Morlons, in "Breaking Into Society," are the current attraction. "Fantasia" 19.

CHICAGO OPERA HOUSE (David H. Hunt, manager).—"In Mizouza," that etching of the "show me" State, was splendidly played here last week, and William Brawley, De Witt C. Jennings, Helen Egan, Eleanor Gordon, Charles Brooks and Eva Taylor did exceptionally fine work. "Why Smith Left Home" will be given this week, commencing matinee 3. "The Henrietta" will follow.

LA SALLE THEATRE (Mort H. Singer, manager).—Decorated from a sidewalk line through the lobby, and to the rear wall of the stage, this house presented a fine appearance, evening of Feb. 27, when the three hundred and fifth and record breaking performance of "The Girl of the Golden West" was given. The audience took advantage of the "old" appearance of things to congratulate Manager Singer upon his fortunate escape from the railroad wreck of recent date. Leather bound pamphlets, were distributed, having cuts of all members, together with scenes from the play, and cuts of the composers and librettists. The occasion was of jubilee in every respect.

ELSTREE THEATRE (Elizabeth Scherer, manager).—"In 'Miss Nell' the Players Stock Co. found one of the happiest mediums of the season, and the performance played the merry scenes as though from their own repertoire. Sarah Truax was a very pleasing Nell; George Farren played Charles well, but the honors of the piece were fairly won by Morris McHugh as old strings, and which Mr. McHugh as old strings, a better performance. One Waldrop charmed through the lobby, and to the rear wall of the stage, this house presented a fine appearance, evening of Feb. 27, when the three hundred and fifth and record breaking performance of "The Girl of the Golden West" was given. Big Attendance and General Success Attend the "Tody" Hamilton Banquet.

"Tody" Hamilton, justly famous from coast to coast as the press agent par excellence, was given a banquet at the Waldorf-Astoria Hotel, this city, on Saturday evening, March 2, that must surely have warmed the cockles of his heart, for it was an event that will go down in history as the biggest of its kind up to date.

There were over four hundred people present. The dinner was given in the grand ball room of the hotel, and was a most remarkable event. The guests of honor sat at a table in the center of a circular ring, about which were placed, in a semi-circle, ribbons, saddles, pads, trapezes, and the other paraphernalia of the circus. Between the speeches there were songs and vaudeville acts by well known performers.

Early in the evening the guests stood up to drink the health of the man described on the menu as "The Foremost Florid, Fleurecent, Forever Fresh and Fair, Ferocious, Fervid, Fast and Furious, Fearsome Father of the Freely Floating Fancy, Florentine Frazes and Far-Flung Fame."

The only "Tody" Hamilton was introduced by Toastmaster John Hennessey, and he made a capital speech, and others gave the guests examples of their skill as after-dinner entertainers.

None of the entertainers of the evening disappointed. Clifford Wiley was the first to appear. The next was Mlle. Regine Arta, of the Manhattan Opera House, who sang "The Song of the Sea." Cecilia Loftus also appeared, and among the entertainers were Vesta Victoria, Kittle Cheatham, Edward Rice and Charles Prince.

At the guests' table were Governor Charles F. Hughes, Herman A. Metz, comptroller; Justice James Fitzgerald, William M. Ivins, Evelyn Wardman, Marc Klaw, Irving Lewis, Joseph Howard Jr., Paul Armstrong, S. S. Carvalho, Marshall P. Wilder, Col. Geo. Tridwell and Conrad Klein. Some of the others were: Herman Riddler, Louis Wiley, Charles Hemstreet, Jerome Selgel, Roy L. McCordell, Isaac Fromme, J. T. McCaddon, John R. Ringland, W. W. Cole, Thomas L. Hamilton, A. J. Stewart, Major John M. Burke, William D. Coxey, Dexter Fellows, Harry L. Watkins, Louis E. Cooke, F. B. Upper, Coroner Peter P. Acritelli, James S. McLean, Arthur J. O'Keefe, Edward Lauterbach, George Broadhurst, Richard Bruno, Jacob A. Cantor, Will Page, Frederic W. Thompson, Abraham Hill, Erlanger, George M. Cohen, Samuel H. Harris, Rex Beach, Col. William F. Morris, Major John J. Bryce, Captain John M. Thompson, Channing Pollock, George J. Cook, Joseph Mayer, George Biestein and O. J. Gude.

A FIRE AT CHARLES B. DILLINGHAM'S country place at White Plains, N. Y., night of Feb. 27, destroyed the stables and kennels and did some damage to the house. Four fine horses were destroyed, and also eight or ten vehicles of various kinds and a dozen dogs. The loss is estimated at $25,000, only a part of which is covered by insurance.

CHAS. AND JOSEPHINE SUMMERS, who are now on their way East, met with great success while playing the Western vaudeville houses.

DEATHS IN THE PROFESSION.

Charles Erin Verner.

News has just reached this office that Charles Erin Verner ("Shamus O'Brien") died during December last, at sea, while en route to Australia. Mr. Verner was born in Ireland, of Scotch descent, and came to this country with his people to Australia near the end of the 60's, and early in the 70's made his professional debut at Ballarat, at the Bijou Theatre, in the farce, "The Irish Lion," supporting Harry Powers, who was stock star. He played in the same company for some time, and then went to Old Benigno, now called Sandhurst (the famous gold mining town), and then was at the Lyceum Theatre, under the management of Harry Stanley. There he played a long one, and advanced step by step to the front. Hard work was necessary then, stars playing six pieces per week, legitimate and otherwise. Two years and six months work made him acquainted with Shakespeare, Shillings, Knowles, Colman, Boucicault and all the lesser dramatists. Burlesque became suddenly the rage about this time, and from a legitimate juvenile actor Mr. Verner jumped to burlesque comedy, singing, dancing, the ballet, etc. While performing a burlesque he gave imitations of the then great comic singers, making such a success that he was engaged as a star to go to Sydney to do that work alone. At Sydney, at the York Street Theatre, he made an instantaneous hit. Afterwards Mr. Verner paid a short visit to this country, then came back to Melbourne, thence with his own company to India, touching at the Isle of Ceylon, passing from Bombay at through the interior as far up as Lahore, and thence back to Calcutta. From Calcutta he went to Chittagong, Akayah, Rangoon, Moulmein in British Burmah, thence to Pulepennang, thence to the Straits Settlements, Singapore, on to Hong Kong, back to Singapore, on to Java, touching at Batavia, Lababaya and Samarang, thence to Northern Australia, where the good ship on which were the Verner Co. ran on to a sunken coral reef. Fortunately it was near the Australian coast, and the passengers and crew reached shore safely after four hours' hard rowing in a boiling sun, and with nothing to eat or drink. Mr. Verner next, after playing through the northern towns of Australia, went to Sydney, New Zealand, where he remained eighteen months, doing all the towns. Thence he traveled to Van Dieman's Land, and back to Melbourne. He played a short engagement with T. J. Herndon and J. J. Wallace at Ballarat, Sandhurst, etc. Thence from Melbourne, he embarked for Cape Town, South Africa, and opened with Captain Disney Roebuck. There he starred for some months in a repertory, including "Rip Van Winkle," "The Shaughraun," "Arrah-Loggie," "The Rivals of the Stage," "The Wife of a Tale of Mankind," etc. Mr. Verner next appeared in England in his own version of the German comedy, "Dr. Klaus," and in an original play, called "Hans, the Assassin." Later he left for America, bringing along a piece well known in Maryland and Pennsylvania, called "The Boy in the Wood." The piece was a failure here to a great extent, through mismanagement, but Mr. Verner won laurels. Next he went to the diamond fields of Kimberly, South Africa, where he brought back a piece called "The Boy in the Wood," which he played at the Theatre Royal, and made money. After a round of London, Paris, Madeira, Scotland, etc., Mr. Verner returned to America, took a short jobbing engagement, left it in disgust, and played "The Shaughraun" at the Theatre Royal, and made money. His success as Conn was instantaneous, and after that he was engaged to star in "Shamus O'Brien." In that play he won his greatest fame, and for years it was his vehicle in this country.

Sam Devere.

Sam Devere, famous minstrel comedian, banjoist and singer, and owner and manager of his own vaudeville and burlesque organization, died at 5 o'clock A. M., on Friday, March 1, at his home on 11th St., New York City, from cancer of the stomach. Mr. Devere was born in New York City sixty-five years ago, and had lived in Brooklyn for forty years. He was educated in the New York schools, and at the age of twenty entered the theatrical profession, first establishing his reputation as a blackface comedian in the music hall which preceded Hyde & Benham's Theatre, Brooklyn. He made a great hit at the time, while playing banjo playing and comic songs, and in the early 80's was said to be one of the highest salaried performers on the variety stage. During the season of 1881-1882 Sam Devere's own company, called "Jasper," played at Barry's Gayety, Albany, N. Y., and played for the first time in New York, Sept. 16, of the same year, at Miller's Bowery Theatre, where Louis Robie was then manager. The show included Fitzgerald, Kelly, O'Brien and Redding, Jr. "Innamy," Capitola Forrest, the Gannella Brothers, in their Chinese act; the Wood Family, in "The Organ Crank"; Sam Devere, singing in "The Whistling Coon" and other songs; C. W. Littlefield, the Acme Four, and Harry Parker's Dog Circus. About four weeks ago Mr. Devere was compelled to leave his company in Kansas City, owing to the rapid advance of a long standing case of cancer of the stomach. Mr. Devere married Frances Bradley about twenty years ago. For the past fifteen years he had lived on Ocean Parkway, and owned considerable real estate in the section. He was formerly an Elk, and at the time of his death was a Mason. He had survived his widow, a brother, Daniel Devere, now in Maine, and three sisters. Funeral services were held at his late home on Sunday afternoon, March 3, the Rev. Dr. Scarborough, of the Flatbush Methodist Episcopal Church officiating. There was a large attendance, including Manager Percy Williams, Archie Ellis, W. Hissel, Edwin Bull, Will O'Brien and many other managers and performers. The interment took place Monday, 4, in Sleepy Hollow Cemetery, Tarrytown, N. Y.

Rosina Brandram, principal contralto of the Savoy Theatre, London, England, died in this city on Feb. 27, from pneumonia, aged thirty years. She was born in London, her real name being Maud. She was educated in France. Her first role in a Gilbert and Sullivan opera was as Lady Sangzaur, in "The Sorcerer," which she took at a few hours' notice. In 1879 she came to America with a company that presented "The Pirates of Penzance," and on her return to London she became a member of the celebrated Savoy company. She created all the old women parts in the Gilbert and Sullivan operas, and her greatest successes were in "The Yeomen of the Guard." She continued to sing until a short time ago, and appeared in the London production of "Veronique."

Wild Rose, "The Monkey Girl from Yucatan," a circus freak, managed by Geo. A. Rabin, was badly burned in a room of a boarding house over McGregor's drug store, in Columbus, S. C., on Feb. 23, and died shortly afterwards. She had been left alone in the room, and it is believed that in venturing too near the stove her clothing caught fire. Wild Rose, as this freak of nature was known all over the country, was a Mexican, being from Yucatan, and was forty-five years of age. Her head was slightly larger than an orange, peak shaped; and her hands were not unlike those of an ape, while her eyes were of a piercing black. She was small of stature and her body was all twisted up, so that when she walked her movement were somewhat like an ape's. Mentally, she was deficient.

After the death of his brother, Harry, a strike of larynx known in amusement circles, Mr. Britton, Mrs. Harris and T. F. Dean assumed the direction of the Academy of Music, Baltimore. Later the control of the house passed to Nixon & Zimmerman, and Mr. Britton dropped out of theatrical affairs.

Harry (Henry N.) Stark, magician, and inventor of tricks of magic, died at his home in Rochester, N. Y., on March 2, from cerebral apoplexy, aged forty-three years. Mr. Stark was a stage favorite twenty-five years ago, when he appeared at Tony Pastor's. He played the Keith and Moore circuits several times, and in 1891 played a six months' engagement in Chicago, under the management of L. L. Glover. He then traveled with Keith for several seasons. He was actively engaged in theatricals until seven years ago, when he went into business in Rochester, N. Y. Early in the 80's he went to London, and opened a conjuring depot. Among those who visited him for new ideas were Alexander Herrmann and Kellar.

Charles Bertram, well known conjurer, died in London, Eng., Feb. 28. Charles Bertram was one of the best known conjurers and prestidigitators in Europe. Of late years he had seldom appeared in theatres, being seen only at private entertainments. He was about sixty years old.

Otto Goldschmidt, husband of Jenny Lind, who died in London in 1887, passed away at that city on Feb. 23, aged seventy-eight years. He married Jenny Lind in 1852, during her American tour, on which he was her accompanist on the piano. Mr. and Mrs. Goldschmidt went to live in England in 1858. He was professor in the Royal Academy of Music in 1863, was made vice-principal in 1866, was first musical director of the Bach Choir in 1876, and resigned in 1885. He edited, in conjunction with Siegfried Benneke, "The Choir Book for England."

Mrs. Caroline Siedle, a leading designer of theatrical costumes, died on Tuesday night, Feb. 26, at her home in Ludlow Park, Yonkers, N. Y., from pneumonia. She was the daughter of an English artist and the wife of Edward Siedle, Heinrich Corried's property master at the Metropolitan Opera House. For the last fifteen years she has designed costumes used in most of the large productions, both legitimate and musical, which have been presented on Broadway. Mrs. Siedle was an English woman, about 40 years old. She leaves one child, a son, 19 years old.

Josef Lewlasky, a well known actor, and stage manager of the Court Theatre, Vienna, died there on Feb. 27. He was born on Sept. 20, 1825, in that city. He made his debut in 1853 at the Theatre Au der Wien, Vienna, and after a short stay at Crappan and Bruus was engaged at the Hofburg Theatre in 1858. He has appeared in all the principal roles of the classic repertoire, notably Hamlet, Richard III., Wurm, Harpagon, Shylock, Vansen, Tartuffe and others.

John Conley, comedian, of the Vanity Fair Burlesque Co., was killed about 2 o'clock on the morning of Sunday, March 2, by jumping from the window at the Arcade Hotel, Chester, Pa., when the hotel was discovered to be on fire. He fell to the street, and died a few hours later at the Chester Hospital.

WON'T YOU COME BACK HOME

The first railroad coon song published, and it stands first among the coon songs of to-day. We challenge the world to produce its equal. It is the big coon song hit of 1907, and it is going to sweep every thing before it. As this song will be limited, as all good things are, we wish to say that "Won't You Come Back Home" is positively the original railroad coon song. If you want to use the BEST coon song, don't hesitate a moment but procure this one at once. Learn it and sing it. It will make you famous.

DEETS, MANAGERS and ELECTRICIANS,

ATTENTION. We have on hand the Large JOHNSON FLOOD which has been at Montauk Beach for the past two seasons.

AT THE OLD HOWARD BOSTON, MASS.

THIS WEEK, MARCH 4.

GO

That's the word—are you ready for the start? Tomorrow at 1 we press the button, the machinery is set in motion, and the biggest burlesque boom that ever erupted in Boston for a week will be under way. Don't get impatient, old boy—give your trousers a good shake, and you'll find the old Howard, who was always the whole thing at the old Howard, is with the Cherry Blossom. Now if Glad is a sample you can bet she'd never annex herself to any bunch of live ones. In our own variety we've got a cluster of star flickers in Julia Redmond, the three Keatons and a host of others.

Cherry Blossom Burlesquers

With a bewildering bunch of beauty models—the kind that cause that aching feeling in your skull piece, including Helen Klotz, May Quinn, Dot Richards, Violet Beauvoir, and a host of others.

GLADYS FISHER CLARK

The pretty miss who won her spurs in that favorite "Any Rags," she'll be on deck with a number of new songs.

LILLIE PERRY

The original kodak girl—pretty as a picture, frisky and clever.

FRANK ROSS

A yid slumporter and head-talker.

BERGMAN, MAHONEY AND CLARK

Leaders in rag-time chirping.

NOLAN AND WHITE

Sketchists who know what's what.

ALSO OUR OWN EXTRA CARDS

JULIA REDMOND & CO.

The comedy queen, in a chuckling farce, "Too Much Married." Talk about household troubles, here's where you get the genuine article with all the fixings. It's supported with a push that certainly knows its biz.

THREE KEATONS

Back among the old folks once again. Joe, Myra and Buster the underdog are a trio of on-toppers that hand out a specialty that's in the eye of the beholder. Comedians with a bundle of knockout funnysims.

MULLEN AND CORELLI

Just one long scream, that's all. Nothing but big chunks of laugh-pellets that touch the right spot.

CORBLEY AND CONLEY

Your joy bells will jingle when this brace breaks forth with their merry jests. The "opiker" and the "sport" put you on the inside.

McGREVY BROS.

Military dancing cadets—experts in their line. Look well to the pickets when you're out scouting.

BILLY CHASE

When Billy shakes the dust from his duster and open his chops you'll hear parody vapors that sweep every thing on the boards.

GARDNER BROS.

Dutch comedians in an amusing dido, "Richard the Three Times." They could be held on the manslaughter charge for what they do to our native tongue.

SMOKING ALLOWED.

NEXT WEEK, MARCH 11.

'Miss New York Jr.'

Pretty Girls, an Aggregation of Talent, Beauty, and Wit.

Always Something Doing from 11 till 11 at the Late of DEETS and DON. She is the rough and ready soubrette, who can sing, dance, talk and tumble. Knows how to put on a hot finish and has been the hub, spokes and rim to one of the neatest song and dance acts that ever appeared over the entire world. She wants a working partner, who possesses good looks and ginger, either man or woman. Must be able to sing and dance and make good all round. She is home from another successful tour of the world, and after a brief rest soon will be ready for business. Address: MRS. HARRY DEETS, at Holland Road, Bristol, S. W., London, England.

Miscellaneous.

BARNUM & BAILEY NOTES.—The European features for the Barnum & Bailey Circus will begin to arrive in New York early next month. Thursday evening, March 21, has been definitely fixed for the opening performance of the Barnum & Bailey Circus at Madison Square Garden, New York. R. M. Harvey and Charles Hayes, of the contracting staff, have already made arrangements for the exhibition in a large number of the city. Many letters have been received by Joseph T. McCaddon, brother of Mrs. J. A. Bailey, expressing satisfaction over the verdict that confirms Mrs. Bailey in the possession of the splendid property left by the famous showman. The Royal Troupe of trained thoroughbreds will be one of the equine features of Barnum & Bailey's New York engagement. This is said to be the best troupe of American trained horses now before the public. The myriad publications for the Barnum & Bailey advertising department are practically completed, and in number and character they surpass anything in the way of "circus literature" that the big show has had in many years. W. W. Cole, managing director of the big show, has been busy all winter organizing the circus company for the season of 1907. The result of his long experience and close application is shown in what is declared to be an exceptionally clear and varied programme of genuine arena features. James De Wolfe, last season with the Hagenbeck Shows, and for many years associated with well known circus attractions, has been engaged as contracting press agent for Barnum & Bailey. Willard D. Coxy will continue as the picture and story man, from one to two weeks ahead of the show, and Dexter W. Fellows will entertain the press on circus day. Toda Siegrist and all but two of the members of the Siegrist-Silbon Troupe of Aerialists, who are engaged with Barnum & Bailey, arrived in New York Feb. 21. Edward Silbon remained in London with his wife, Jennie Silbon, who is in a hospital, slowly recovering from a dangerous operation. Mr. Silbon will sail later and rejoin the troupe, but there is no expectation that Mrs. Silbon will be able to appear during the Spring.

PAWNEE BILL NOTES.—After spirited bidding by traveling amusement purveyors all over the country, the dramatic spectacle, "The Great Train Robbery," has been awarded to Pawnee Bill by Arthur Voegtlin, holder of the copyright, who produced it at Luna Park, New York, last Summer. The production will be a leading feature of Pawnee Bill's Wild West and Far East Show, half interest of which has recently been purchased by Edward Arlington, formerly of the Barnum & Bailey forces. A thirty-ton engine and two regulation passenger coaches will be transported from city to city, and other impediments will include portable mountains, steel railroad tracks, a prairie and a forest, dance halls, gambling houses, streets and a reservoir of 100,000 gallon capacity. The place is a radical departure from familiar Wild West routine, and marks the end, showmen say, of the time worn Indian battle scene. The traveling rights secured by Pawnee Bill are exclusive.

WILL DELAFOX writes regarding the busy days about the ring barns of his own and the Davenport, in Chicago. Horse training is, of course, the principal feature of this Winter's work. There are two horses of Orin Davenport's, who, with his wife, Victoria, go with the Forepaugh & Sells Show; one horse of May Davenport, who also goes with the same show; and a large number of other horses of the Davenport family, who return to the Ringling Bros. show; three horses of Homer Hobson's, who, with his wife, return to the Ringling Bros. show; two horses of Bill Ryan and Lizzy Ryan, who, with the Gollmar Bros., one horse of Bob Stickey's, who also goes with the Ringling Bros. show. Lulu Davenport is also here, and with Reno McCoy, will work with the Wallace-Hagenbach show. There are four well known grooms here—E. D. Hunter, Geo. Alexander, Ernest Bente and Fred Heller.

CAPT. FRED WALTERS, the "blue man," who has been touring abroad for the past four years, with Buffalo Bill's Wild West, sailed from Liverpool Feb. 25, for New York, and on arrival opens at Huber's Fourteenth Street Museum, after which he rejoins the Wild West Show. Mr. Walters has just closed a most successful six weeks' engagement in Glasgow, Scotland, where he received a nomination for the medical fraternity.

THE CROON SISTERS, after a run of fourteen weeks at the Hippodrome, New York, close there March 2, sailing to Europe immediately thereafter, opening at Bostock's Hippodrome, Paris, France, March 16.

NOTES FROM JOYCE'S OLD TIME COUNTRY CIRCUS.—We have been very busy all winter, making active preparations for our third touring season, to open March 28, at New York. Our present Winter quarters, the outfit for next season will be entirely new, and the very best that money can procure. Our top will be an 80 ft. round, with two soft, middle pieces, and a large flying tent; 12x14 ft. marquee will use a 30x50 ft. horse tent; to carry the outfit over the road, will have sixteen wagons and forty head of stock, including "Spot," the talking horse; our Shetland ponies, "Zip," the baby elephant, "Jas. Joyce" will start a new diversion in wagon shows when he travels from town to town in his automobile. A feature next season will be our concert band of twelve pieces, which will precede before each show a programme of music ranging from ragtime to the works of standard masters. Fred Lampe has been engaged (second season) as general manager, and Dan Lobdell will go ahead of the show, with two assistants and a very extensive line of special printing, and we feel positive that this will be the banner season of Joyce's Old Time Country Circus.

GRANT ALLMON, talking and singing clown, has signed for the coming season with Al. F. Wheeler's Shows, making his third season with these shows.

OLIVE SWAN writes that she is on her farm at Pullman, Mich., training a black high school horse, and will remain there until April 1.

ELEANOR CUTTY.—Whose picture appears on our front page, is a native of Baltimore, and has been upon the stage about four years, having made her debut in vaudeville with her brothers and sisters. She is one of the family of the six Musical Cutties, and has been a musician since her childhood, having played at many musicals and receptions in and about Baltimore, where she first commanded public attention when little more than a baby. A remarkable feature about Miss Cutty is, when a mere girl, she had the distinction of being a leader of an orchestra in her home town. Miss Cutty has mastered her art and is justly proud of the fact that she can perform on any musical instrument.

ROSTER OF THE MODERN NOVELTY CO., touring Iowa to capacity business.—Prof. Patton, European novelty; Madame Paffon, classical songs and rolling globe; Reno Demond, hand-cuff manipulator and fire king; Dell Deering, comedian, singer and dancer; Udoia Boughton, leader of orchestra; Harry M. Asaley, manager and lecturer.

NOTES FROM THE FERRARI ANIMAL SHOW.—An important deal has been consummated at Norfolk, whereby Francis Ferrari will exhibit a greatly enlarged wild animal show at the Jamestown Exposition, opening there in April, for a season of thirty weeks. Many novel ideas will be embodied in the show which will be one of the features of the Exposition. Mr. Ferrari will occupy a prominent part of "The War Path"—500 feet by 408 feet. One of the buildings will be fitted up to resemble a tropical jungle, in the heart of Africa, artistically studded with dense foliage and special electrical effects. The privilege of exhibiting at the Exposition was solicited by animal exhibitors from all over the world. Mr. Ferrari's guarantee for a season of thirty weeks is probably the biggest guarantee ever before given for a trained wild animal show.

PROF. JOHN WHITE informs us that he is breaking in the funniest and greatest of animal acts, composed of monkeys, presented to the American public, which, he says, he will put in the highest class vaudeville houses of America.

NOTES FROM IRVING BROS.' COMEDY CO., now touring New York State.—Our business has been good so far this season. Roster of the company: T. R. Irving and J. W. Irving, managers; Frank Bates, Bud Phillips, George Allen, Walter Glasford, Davis Sisters, and Ross Booth.

H. S. MAGUIRE writes from Santo Domingo, under date of Feb. 10: "Maguire's Novelty Co., with the horse, 'Masco,' has just closed a three months' engagement in the Island of Porto Rico, and has opened in the Theatre La Republicana of this capital, to an immense business. It is also patronized by General Ramon Caceres, president of the Republic of Santo Domingo. The company will leave here for San Pedro de Macoris."

THE CHARLES AMUSEMENT CO., of Buffalo, will operate the park at Olcott Beach this Summer on a larger scale than formerly. The International Railway Co., owners of the property, have set aside a large tract of land to be operated on the Luna Park order, and the lessees have already placed contracts calling for $50,000 worth of new amusement devices. Chas. W. McMahon, theatrical agent, of Buffalo, is president of the Charles Amusement Co., while Chas. G. Stevens, manager of the Academy Theatre there, is secretary-treasurer.

W. R. MARBLEY, proprietor of the new Sunny South Floating Theatre, leaves Winter quarters at Spottsville, Ky., for Parkersburg, W. Va., where he will arrive in about eight days, and, after overhauling the fleet, he will open the show about April 1.

"THE TEDDY BEARS" are the subject of the latest Edison films. They are satirized with laughable effect. The Edison scenic series are great attractions, also their "Honey-moon," "Life of a Cowboy," "Kathleen Macomber," and others.

THE VIVIANI presents "The Haunted Hotel," a set of mysterious pictures, wherein many ghostly scenes are enacted to the great surprise and bewilderment of the spectators. Many laughable incidents are shown, including a house that changes into a goblin, a table set by invisible hands, living dishes, a knife that actually cuts steaks of bologna and bread; wine, tea and milk that pour themselves out, sugar tongs that drop lumps of sugar into a tea cup, and a spoon that stirs the tea (all without the sign of a human hand), a bedroom that rocks up and down, and finally turns completely over and over, while the poor frightened traveler is in bed, shivering with fright and wondering what is going to happen next.

"THE UNWRITTEN LAW" is the subject used by S. Lubin for his latest set of moving pictures. The sensational scenes include the artist's model, a boy and two of the velvet, the mirror boudoir, the young millionaire, the tragedy on the roof, and the trial scene.

A list of new comic films can be supplied by the Kleins Optical Co. It includes: "The Man Monkey" (comic), "Two Rival Peasants" (comic), "The Miner's Daughter" (dramatic), "The Birthday Celebration" (comic), "Her First Cake" (comic), "My Servant is a Jewel" (comic), "Story Winds Do Blow" (comic), "The Making of Champagne" (descriptive), "The Little Globe Trotter" (dramatic), "Looking for Lodgings" (comic), "Modern Diogenes and His Barre" (comic), and "Reformation" (Rehabilitation)" (sensational).

"FIGHTS OF NATIONS," showing methods of various nationalities of settling affairs of honor, is supplied by the Biograph. "The Mexican, Spanish, Hebrew, Scotch, African, American styles are depicted with good Irish, American style and humor."

"THE NEW LIFE OF CHRIST" is a timely display. "ROBERT MACABRE AND BERTRAND" is the title of a comedy parent film originated by the Melles firm.

BOB AND BERTHA HYDE, who are filling a very successful week at the Gotham, at Brooklyn, are booked for some time yet over Eastern time, write: "We visited the Motor Boat Show at Madison Square Garden, N. Y. City, and purchased an eighteen foot steel motor boat, also a fifteen foot 'Queen' steel row boat, of the Mullins Co., and can hardly wait till July 1, to get up to Camp Rest, to launch them, and expect to have considerable company during the Summer months from our professional friends. We expect to spend three months at our camp, where we have a large body of water to navigate and most excellent fishing and hunting." The company has a standing invitation.

JACQUES AND SARDEL, acrobatic jumping comedians, since closing with Haverly's Minstrels, have been playing vaudeville, where their new act is being well received.

JOE K. KELLY AND VIRGINIA KELSEY are now in their last week on the Crystal circuit, and are a big success. Kelly and Kelsey are engaged by the R. Emmerson Companies to produce and stage the four three act farce comedies, with twelve big numbers to each farce. They open at Wheeling on or about April 1, with Company No. 1, which will carry twenty-one people and a brass band of sixteen pieces, for an extra attraction. The Great Gay, hand-cuff expert, is engaged.

CHAS. HORRER, singing and talking comedian, closed with the Cook Comedy Co., Saturday, Feb. 23, after a season of twenty-five weeks, and is now at his home, Paterson, N. J.

IT'S GREAT TO BE A SOLDIER MAN

IS THE LATEST MARCH SONG. By MORSE & DRISLANE.

It's better than "What the Brass Band Played," and is the swiftest opening or closing song these writers have turned out in some time.

HERE'S THE CHORUS:

He's the pride of all creation,
The defender of our Nation,
Makes no difference what his station,
He'll win if he can.

He is honest, true and clever,
Powers mighty cannot sever,
It's his flag he loves forever,
Gee! it's great to be a soldier man.

We told you so! Didn't we? That "ARRAH WANNA" would be a big hit! Well, it is, and all you've got to do is put it on, sing the verse, and the audience sings the chorus on. They'll help some. We can fit your voice in any key.

F. B. HAVILAND PUB. CO., 125 West 37th St., N. Y.

Have just received slides for "ARRAH WANNA"—20 of the greatest ever, by SIMPSON. Write for slide proposition on this and other illustrated songs. A late programme MUST accompany all requests for copies unless we know you. Cards will NOT answer. DON'T FORGET THIS. IT'S IMPORTANT.

Pabst Extract

The Best Tonic

For the Convalescent

At no time during a severe sickness is the patient's vitality at so low an ebb as in commencing convalescence. It is then the system must be repaired by building up the wasted tissues and sending rich, red blood through the veins. The crisis is over, but there is still danger of a relapse. Nothing will do more to prevent sinking back into disease and fever than combining as it does the nutritive and digestive elements of pure, rich barley malt, with the quieting and tonic effects of the choicest hops. The system easily and thoroughly assimilates the nourishment offered in this predigested form. The patient is assured peaceful rest and refreshing sleep. At the same time, the appetite is stimulated, causing a desire for and making possible the digestion of heavier foods, after which the road to recovery is short.

Pabst Extract

Pabst Extract

The Best Tonic

strengthens the weak, builds up the run down, cheers the depressed. It will nourish your nerves, enrich your blood and invigorate your muscles. It gives sleep to the sleepless, relieves dyspepsia and is a boon to nursing mothers.
